

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Alpha Enetwork (private) limited is incorporated as private limited company under The Companies Act 2017 having registered office at plot # 118, Al-Noor Industrial Zone, 20km Ferozepur road, Lahore.

The principal line of business of the company is manufacturing and assembling of Mobile phones (both bar & smart phones) by purchasing/importing raw materials into finished goods.

Alpha derives its financial strength from a good business conglomerate having diversified businesses experience in trading, distribution, agriculture, import, export and construction.

Management at Alpha have extensive practical work experience of over 15 years in manufacturing, assembling and selling of mobile and electronic products. We always seek new trends and innovations in market to provide updated value products to our customers.

Company intends to establish a strong network of distribution channels across the country to provide our products at customer doorsteps.

Alpha is looking forward to Pakistan market, innovation as the soul, integrating and adhering to the product concept of “practical, exquisite, high quality and low price” to provide consumers with more and more excellent products. We are hopeful that with our operational and financial strengths, Company will achieve its goals in a short span of time.